7. Almost all the rules ~~proposed~~ come under one or the other of the Rule-making powers of Government which are specified in Sec. 44 of the Regulation.

Of these are two rules however which do not seem to fall under any of the specified powers:—

Rule 20 A. (1) on the Maintenance of fluid resources by Societies which accept deposits, and Rule 26 (iii)(2) as to the Disposal of the surplus funds of a Society which has ~~been~~ in course liquidation.

Of the above rules may perhaps come under the general powers of Govt. to make rules under the Regulation.

10 The Madras Rules ~~are~~ not being available, it was not possible to ~~effectively~~ Compare the suggested rules with the existing rules of Madras. The Madras Bill, ~~of~~ No 4 of 1931, has a few of the new suggestions incorporated therein. The Bombay Rules have been freely drawn upon. The following is a statement showing the extent ~~of the~~ to which the Bombay Rules and the Madras Bill have contributed to the proposed amendments of the Mysore Rules

Retransmitted with compliments to the Secretary to Government of Mysore, Development Department, with the following remarks:-

Rule 6A. The incorporation of this rule was proposed in accordance with the recommendations of the Mysore Co-operative Committee and the orders of Government thereon. The Co-operative Societies and Co-operators who object to the rule in its present form have suggested that it may be made applicable only to unlimited liability societies, but they do not seem to have bestowed any thought on the question whether such a practice exists in such unlimited liability societies. So far, I have not come across with any case in which a person has become a member of more than one unlimited liability society and the Mysore Co-operative Committee have therefore stated that the evil exists only in limited liability societies, particularly in Mysore and Bangalore. And so, to make the rule apply only to unlimited liability societies will serve no useful purpose, as the evil does not exist there. That the restriction of membership in societies is desirable has been admitted generally by almost all the co-operators (a copy of letter received from Mr. G.K.Devadhar, M.A., is herewith enclosed for the information of Government) but they only state that too much power should not be given to the Registrar. No power need be given to the Registrar at all. It was thought advisable that the Registrar may permit persons of influence and respectability to join several Co-operative Societies, not with the intention of any personal gain but merely with the benevolent intention of helping the institution with their services. Hence the rule was proposed in that form. The Co-operators and Co-operative institutions propose to place a healthy restriction on borrowing. This is the real object in view. But the rule as proposed by some of the Co-operators is not likely to achieve this result, as committees of management are led away by personal considerations in the matter of the disposal of loan applications. The best thing under the circumstances seems to be to alter the rule so as to make borrowing in more than one society of the same kind impossible and the rule may therefore be recast as follows:-

69 6A (i) A person shall not borrow from more than one society of the same kind.

(The explanation requires no change.)

70 6A (ii) may be recast as follows:- The decision of the Registrar regarding the kind or kinds of societies from which a person borrows shall be final.

71 6A (iii) The furnishing of the lists of members to other societies is necessary, otherwise the checking will not and cannot be effective. Hence the proposed rule may remain.

72 Rule 10 (ii) may be recast as follows, as suggested by the Co-operative Propagandist Institute:-

"Every member of a society based on unlimited liability shall submit to such society at the ~~same~~ time of his admission as well as at the close of each co-operative year a statement of his assets and liabilities duly verified to be correct and true."

73 Rule 16. Some protions of this rule have been proposed to be incorporated ~~in~~ in the Regulation by means of the amending regulation which is now before the Legislative Council. The portions which come in the amending regulation may be omitted in the rule and the other portions of this rule may be passed.

14 Rule 16(IX) (b) "When an award has been made, the person or persons who made it should cause it to be filed in the office of the Registrar together with any depositions and documents which have been taken and proved before them and notice of the filing shall be given to the parties". This clause may be added.

15 Rule (viii) may be revised as follows:- "In proceedings under this rule, the evidence of the parties and witnesses..... in English, if the arbitrator or the Board of arbitrators is so authorised by the Registrar, or in Kannada and shall..... dispute.

16 Rule 17 (a) The following proviso may be added:- Provided that (i) no loss be debitted to the reserve fund without the sanction of the general body and (ii) before any such loss is so debitted the society shall obtain the consent of the financing Bank if any to which it is indebted.

17 Rule 20A. The proposed rule may be recast as follows:- "Every society accepting deposits from individuals and institutions shall provide for fluid resources in such manner and according to such standards as may from time to time be prescribed by the Government in consultation with the financing Banks. The Government may however empower the Registrar by general or special order to relax the standard prescribed for a particular society or for a particular class of societies for a specified period".

78 Rule 21A. This may be dropped as it has found a place in the Regulation.

79 Copy of letter received by Mr. G.K.Devadhar, M.A.

Many thanks for arranging to send me as requested a copy of your latest Report of the progress of the co-operative movement in Mysore State. I am pleased to notice that your are endeavouring to give effect to some suggestions which are expected to prove an improvement on the present methods and practices. I have read in the "Times of India" of the 16th instant about the opposition to your attempt to put some restrictions on membership of Co-operative societies. I trust the people will see the need for safeguards now.

More in my next or when and if I meet on my way to Malabar.

I trust your faith in the mission of co-operation on the whole is being deepened and not shaken by the difficulties of the present day.

§ The Registrar's revised proposals may be noted on

1/4/33

1.4.33.

§ Rule 6 A

The Regr. states that the question of applying the rule to the Unlimited Societies only does not arise, since there are no cases of that kind. He states that the evil exists only in limited liability Societies. The real object in view is to place a healthy restriction on borrowing. But the Regr. is not in favour of giving this power to restrict grant of loans to the Cooperative Institutions themselves. and would suggest the laying down of a rule that a person should not borrow from more than one society of the same kind. Against this proposal, the following objections will still remain: —

§ Small Societies will go out of existence. (A)(E)(L)(I)(F)(J)
Larger Banks will be swamped.

§ A reshuffling of ~~Societies~~ membership (F)(I) will be ~~cost~~ caused by the application of the Rule which again will react upon the finance and working of Societies.

(D) 85 The President of the Land Mortgage Bank has pointed out that the rule would prevent a person who has taken a small loan from a local institution from obtaining a larger loan of which he may be in need from a Central Institution.

(E) 86 The restriction proposed to be imposed on borrowing, will also have the effect of driving members to money-lenders & Joint Stock Banks.

87 It is for consideration also whether the suggestion of the Mysore Cooperators to leave the problem to the movement itself to solve, could be adopted. A Federation of Societies has been brought about in Mysore City, with a view to Coordinating the activities and developing the Societies of the same kind working in the Urban Area. The Mysore Cooperators have also requested that the decision may be postponed till the Provincial Conference of 1933 is held, so that Govt may have the benefit of the expression of the views of all Cooperators in the matter.

88 The Mysore Cooperative Propaganda Institute which may be taken to more or less fully represent the Cooperative movement in the State, speaking through its Governing Body, has stated that in

NOTE—Contn. Sheet.

is no doubt true that there is a small ~~minority~~ minority of members who are guilty of excessive borrowing and their conduct may prejudicially affect the interest of the Society to some extent, but that the remedy lies in greater scrutiny of loan applications and not by a general rule of prohibition which would be detrimental to the interest of a large majority of members. They have accordingly adopted the rule so as to provide for the more careful scrutiny of loan & membership applications. The suggestions of the Propagandist Institute are for consideration. This is a point requiring orders.

(P) vide p. 3 (P)

89 A check on borrowing is necessary & the rule as recommended by the Registrar may be adopted.

90 As regards the draft rules, the following are proposed to be omitted from further consideration as they have been taken up in the Amending Regulation:—

the matter of Civil Courts may be omitted since there is provision in the Amending Bill.

93 Rule 16 (ii), (iv), v, vi, vii, x, xii & xiii may be omitted from the Rules as they find place in the Amending Bill 94 Rule 16 (xiv) is separately under consideration (Pleaders in Cooperative suits). This may perhaps be omitted here.

95 Rule 16 (ii), 16 (viii), 16 (ix) have been redrafted or revised in the light of objections and may be approved.

96 Rule 16 (xi) may be adopted with the Correction proposed by the Presd. of the L.M. Bench - substituting the word ~~for~~ demand for decree.

(3) I generally agree with the modifications suggested by the Registrar and agreed to by the Development Secretary in the draft Rules except Rule 6 A. As regards this rule, I am not satisfied that there is any real urgency for it in its final form. The original idea was to prohibit a person from being a member of more than one society of the same kind. But owing to the objections received against it, the Registrar now proposes, to prohibit a person from borrowing from more than one society of the same kind. Apart from the difficulty of enforcing the rule, it would involve the anomaly that members of a society cannot enjoy some of the privileges of membership. I think this rule requires further consideration and modification somewhat on the lines suggested by the Propagandist Institute. But the issue of the other rules need not wait for a final decision on this rule. So all the other draft rules as modified by the Development Secretary may issue reserving the issue of Rule 6 A for further consideration.

were against it as it is opposed to the resolutions passed at the Provincial Conferences. In 1929 a resolution was brought before the Conference that societies should be given the option to file suits either before the Registrar or in the Civil Courts. This was defeated by a large majority. Even an amendment to the resolution suggesting that as an experimental measure it might at first be tried in the case of Urban societies, was dropped for want of a seconder (vide page 17 of the printed proceedings of the Conference held in 1929)

Again at the Conference held in October 193
a resolution was passed stating "that permission to Co-operative Societies to file suits in Civil Courts be granted not as a matter of course but only in exceptional cases". This resolution is not only against the granting of option to societies but goes further and places a limit on the Registrar's discretion to grant permission to file suits in Civil Courts.

In view of the above the Governing Body accepts the draft rules as proposed by Government.

Rule 16 (iv)

The draft rule as it stands does not prescribe a time-limit for the making of the awar The power to the Registrar to withdraw can only arise if no award is made within the time fixed originally or extended later on. To avoid this

This Rule while re[illegible] leaves the loan and membership applicatio[illegible] decision to the managing Committees of the Urban societies and there is no reason to apprehend that they would not exercise their discretion wisely and protect the societies interest.

Draft Rule A 3 is altered as noted below to avoid the labour and inconvenience of preparing copies of lists of members.

6 A (3) "Every society shall keep a list of its members together with their addresses at its registered office which shall be open to inspection during its working hours by any person or persons authorised by the managing Committee of another society".

The rule now proposed throws the respo[illegible] -ty primarily on the individual shareholder helps the society to enforce the production of assets and liabilities statement instead of throw[illegible] ing the responsibility on the society itself. When once the statements are procured from t[illegible] members it will be easy for the society to [illegible] them.

Rule 16(i) Settlement of dues disputes through Civil Courts.

Registrar to admit a person who is already a member of more than one society of the same kind, ~~as a matter~~ would weaken the sense of responsibility of the managing Committee. It is against the autonomous charact of the societies though there may be no reason to apprehend that the Registrar would not exercise his discretion properly.

The ~~General~~ Governing Body is of opinion that the proposed Rule 6 A, should be deleted and in its place the following Rule substituted.

6A(1) No person shall be a member of more than one society based on Unlimited liability provided the Registrar may in exceptional cases relax this rule.

(2) Every application for membership or loan to any society shall be accompanied by a duly verified statement containing among other things:-

(a) The names of societies in which the applicant may be a member;

(b) his liabilities, if any, in such societies and elsewhere, and the extent thereof,

(c) the applications, if any, for membership or loan which he has made to other societies; and

(d) an undertaking to give information of any other applications for membership or loan which he may thereafter make to other societies .

Explanation+ The term "loan" in this Rule shall not include advances against fixed deposits and over-drawals against current accounts.

The Managing Committee of a society may expel any member after hearing his explanations, if any, who wilfully furnishes false information or acts in contravention of the provisions of Rules. The member so expelled shall have a right of appeal to the General Body".

GEN. & REV. SECRETARIAT 20 MAY 1932 DEVELOPMENT SECTION

FROM

K. H. RAMAYYA, ESQ., B.A., BAR-AT-LAW,
REGISTRAR OF CO-OPERATIVE SOCIETIES
IN MYSORE, BANGALORE.

To

B.T.Keshava Iyengar, Esq., B.A.,
Secretary to Government of Mysore,
Development Department, Bangalore.

Sir,

I have the honour to forward, herewith, for the information and order of Government, a set of additions and amendments to the Mysore Co-operative Societies Rules and to state as follows:-

The proposed Rule No.6A is based on the recommendations of the Mysore Co-operative Committee and Government have already accepted the same in their Order No.I.C.6492-6563/C.S.34-23-11 dated 30th March 1925 (vide para 3 of the said Government Order). As such a restriction is very necessary in the interests of the Co-operative Movement as a whole and the particular individuals in particular and as it will act as a healthy check on - contracting obligations in a number of societies with the obvious consequences of default etc., and as the societies particularly in the urban areas are not likely to act up to the true ideal, this rule is essential and may be approved.

Rule 10 - All unlimited liability societies are expected to maintain a register of properties owned by their members but the byelaw in this respect is observed more in the breach thereof and hence, it is desirable to have the rule now proposed incorporated in the Rules itself as Rule 10(ii), the existing rule 10 (ii) being renumbered as 10 (iii).

Rule 13.- Some societies prepare their balance sheets incorrectly which are certified by the society s auditors and the same are published and approved by the General Bodies and the Department cannot exercise effective control and see that incorrect balance sheets are not published and approved. In fact as matters stand at present, in the case of limited liabilities, it is not necessary that they should await the Registrar's approval to the balance sheets for distributing dividends. Such a state of of affairs is hardly conducive to the well-being of the co-operative societies. It is therefore necessary that the balance sheet should be prepared and submitted to the Registrar in the first instance and he should issue an audit certificate and then the society should publish the same and hold the general meeting. This will be in accordance with the Registrar's statutory duties under Section 17 of the Regulation. Hence the amendment proposed to the Rule may be approved.

Rule 17 (a).- As the rule now stands, loss accruing to a society due to bad debts being written off cannot be debited to the reserve fund. In practice, this is being allowed. The proposed amendment will regularise the procedure in this respect and hence may be approved.

Rule 21 A.- This new rule is proposed so that the Registrar may take proper action in the case of societies where committee members, themselves being defaulters, fail to take any action for the recoveries of monies due to the societies and the general bodies are indifferent or do not desire to incur the wrath of such committee members and as a result thereof the societies cannot be improved. Such a section exists in the proposed Madras Co-operative Societies Act and is very necessary to set right the affairs of the defaulting indebted societies. (This provision has been proposed as an amendment in the Regulation also recently submitted to Government)

New Rule 25(1) in place of the existing 25 (1).- This is necessary to enable the Registrar to fix the remuneration payable for liquidation work.

25(m).- This rule requires the Liquidator to call for a general meeting of the members of the society on conclusion and take their views regarding the disposal of the surplus funds. This addition is desirable.

New Rule 20 (A).- This is in accordance with the recommendations of the Mysore Co-operative Committee (vide para 8 of Government Order No.I.C.6492-6563/C.S.32-23-1 dated 30-3-1925) and is necessary with a view to ensure prompt repayment of deposits held by societies.

Rule 16.- This amended Rule is based on the recommendations of the Mysore Co-operative Committee indicating the lines on which the disposal of disputes should be regularised. Government had in their Order No.I.C.6492-6563/C.S.34-23-11 dated 30-3-25 stated as follows:-

"Government observe that there are at present no clear orders as to the procedure to be followed by the officers of the Co-operative Department in enquiring into co-operative disputes. It is necessary that specific instructions should be prescribed which every officer of the Department who enquiries into co-operative disputes should follow and that provision should be made in the rules to enforce the attendance of witnesses and parties. The procedure to be followed in regard to disposal of disputes may well be that prescribed for formal enquiries in the Land Revenue Code and as regards the enforcement of the attedance of parties and witnesses, the procedure prescribed in the Civil Procedure Code may be adopted".

The Rule is amended and amplified in accordance with the above instructions. Provision is also made for the setting aside of the expaite decisions. In a recent case before the High Court of Judicature, Madras, the Judges have observed that some simple rules are necessary for setting aside exparte decisions in co-operative disputes. Provision is also made for the Registrar to revise, annul or modify the decisions passed by the Assistant Registrars and Arbitrators in cases where no appeal lies to him. Government have in their letter No.D.1335/C.S.9-31-2 dated 28-8-1931 stated that according to the rules as they now stand, the Registrar cannot interfere in the decisions of the Assistant Registrars involving claims of less than Rs.500/- and that the Assistant Registrars' decisions in such cases are final. It is very necessary that the Registrar should have power to call for the records in any case and pass such orders as may be necessary to meet the ends of justice.

Provision has also been made to the effect that the decision of the Registrar or the Assistant Registrars and Arbitrators cannot be called in question in any Civil or Revenue Court. Recently in a case case before the Munsiff, Hassan, the Munsiff ordered that the decree passed by the Assistant Registrar, Mysore, is not binding on the defendant. To avoid such anomalies, the additional provision now proposed is very necessary.

I request that the proposed additions and amendments may be published in the official Gazette and objections invited and early action taken to incorporate the same in the rules.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

H Ramaya
Registrar.

REGISTRAR OF CO-OPERATIVE SOCIETIES IN MYSORE, BANGALORE.

To

D.Srinivasa Iyengar,Esq.,B.A.,
Secretary to the Government of Mysore,
Development Department, Bangalore.

Sir,

With reference to your letter No.D.1302/C.S.105-31-2 dated 22nd September 1932 regaroing the amendment of Rule 13 of the Rulee under the Mysore Co-operative Societies Regulation No.VII of 1918, I have the honour to state that, on a further consideration of the question in all its aspects, I am of opinion that the present Rule may stand as it is. In view however the fact that, according to Section 17 of the Regulation the Registrar should audit or get audited the accounts of all Co-operative Societies, it is necessary that the Registrar should have a panel of Auditors of Co-operative Societies from among whom the societies should appoint their auditors. Proposals in this respect will be - submitted to Government in due course.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

K H Ramayya
Registrar.

Sir,

I have the honour to enclose herewith a copy of the Resolution of the Managing Committee dated 30-20-32 passed with reference to the above.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,

Hon: Secretary.

MANAGING COMMITTEE RESOLUTION NO. X DATED 30th OCTOBER 1932.

1. Resolved that a Public Meeting of all Co-operators be immediately called in consultation with other Co-operative Institutions of the City of Mysore on a convenient day.

2 Resolved further, that in the openion of the Committee the proposed rule 6 A (i) and 6 A (ii) which invest the Registrar with powers that he may arbitrarily exercise according to his own wishes are opposed to the very rudimantary principles and ideals of Co-operation, are harmful to the to the interest especially of Societies of the cities of Bangalore and Mysore, tend to discourage the association of self respecting Non- official persons with the movemant, weaken the existing Societies some of which may even wind up their business, and is opposed to the very policy of the Government to non-officialise the movement so far followed and interested.

Rule 21 A.

The rule is highly objectionable and uncalled for, as there are already other rules and section in the Regulation to cope with Societies which may prove to be recalcitrant. * Resolved that the Propogandist Institute be requested to take immediate and necessary steps to opposex the proposed said rules.

Resolved that this committee regrets that these important and drastic changes in the rule proposed by the Government on 27-9-32 were not brought before the annual conference held on 5-10-32 and onwards for ascertaining the views of the conference.

Resolved that copies of these resolution be forwarded to the Registrar Government and the Propogandist Institute and Development Secretary.

With reference to the Govt.Notification No 1376 C.S.105-31-3 dated 27.9.1932 calling for opinion of the public regarding the proposed changes in the rules under the Co-operative Regulation Mysore (Rule VI A and 21 A), I have the honour to send herewith the Resolution of the Managing Committee of the Society on the question:-

"Resolved that this Committee is of opinion that the proposed rules under the Co-operative Societies Regulation Sec. 44 (VI (a) and 21 (a) should not be passed as they are fundamentally opposed to the accepted principles of Co-operation as time and again announced by the Government namely to hand over the management and supervision of co-operative institutions to non-official bodies.

The proposed Rule VI (a) investing as it does the Registrar with powers to interfere in matters of fresh admission of members and even in respect of Members on the Rolls makes Co-operative Societies more official ridden and takes away the power of the General Body to retain or not to retain a particular member. Such a rule affects the financial position and particularly deposits of approved members and strangles the Co-operative movement and expecially younger Societies as this.

This Committee is emphatically of opinion that Rule XXI (a) is absolutely unnecessary and uncalled for as there are already sufficient powers for interference in case of gross mismanagement".

Memo

Draft amendment. 6-A. Omit the words "without the special or general sanction of the Regr" in lines 2 and 3 and the words "upon a requisition from the Registrar to that effect"

Reasons for the above alterations: —— there is no necessity to empower the Regr to permit a person to be a member of more than one society of the same kind. When such a thing is admittedly harmful there is no reason why there should be any departure from it in any case. The danger is that the Regr when entrusted with such powers will as likely as not treat all cases as special and particularly in Baroda treats where alone such multi membership generally exist. One is reminded of a similar provision in the Infant marriage Prevention Act of Baroda which has altogether stultified the Regr as every case in a it went up to the empowered authority was without exception treated as special.

The second point is self explanatory. It should be obligatory on the societies to remove persons within a defined period who continue to be in more than one of the same kind and it should not be dependent upon the requisition of the Regr who may or may not care to move in the matter.

6 A(ii) Add 'ordinarily' between 'shall' and 'be'. An appeal may lie to government only when the Society and the Regr differ.

Amendment Rule 17(c). Appears unnecessary. It is proposed to meet bad debts out of ~~xxxxxx~~ Reserve with the Registrar's sanction. Bad debts always connote insufficient consideration to the security either personal or otherwise at the time of the grant of loan or inattention to the prompt recovery of instalments. This proposed amendment will tend to increase the bad debts as the Society will not be over careful in sanctioning when it comes to know that the writing off does not effect the percentage of dividend by virtue of the amount being debited to Reserve Funds. It is true the sanction of the Regr is necessary in the latter case but it is actually in experience that it does not present any formidable difficulty.

Proposed Rule 21. A. Appears unnecessary. The Regr has powers under Rule 21 to remove any Member of a Committee though it has not been so far exercised.

The Regr may proceed under Sec 39 of the Regr in such cases. He should not be empowered to appoint one man in place of a Committee in direct opposition to the will of the general body who will have elected the members at an annual general meeting.

——— " ——— C. Sitaramaiya

Additional Rules which may be dealt with under Sec 44 (3) of the Regr.

Rule 17 (C) Omit the words "may be utilized as working capital of the society or"

Registrars have given a very generous interpretation to this Rule so much so that over 60 p.c of the Societies have no such as Reserve Fund as they have become part of working capital. It is desirable to remove the spl power of the Regr immediately.

(Mr P. G. D'souza's address at the Co: Conference in 1930 may be read with interest)

Rule 18 — 10 p.c may be altered to 8
Rule 23 - 25 p.c may be altered into 10 p.c in the case of Urban Societies.

Regn Sec 44(2)(g). In the case of Urban credit and Store Societies the maximum may be fixed at three hundred members in accordance with the recommendation of the Jamaldar Committee. In some Societies in Bangalore city there are 800 to 900 members and in such circumstances it is almost impossible to inculcate the spirit of the Co-operative movement amongst the members.

Sir,

A public meeting of Co-operators of Mysore city was held on Thursday the 10th November 1932 at the Rangacharlu Memorial Hall, Mysore to consider the rules proposed to be framed under section 44 Co-operative Regulation and published in the Mysore Gazette dated 13-10-1932.

Mr.C.Narasimhiah. B.A;B.L, Advocate and Vice President of the City Co-operative Bank and The Mysore Co-operative Society, Mysore, presided on the occasion.

The following resolutions were unanimously passed at the meeting after an elaborate discussion which mainly centered on the consideration of 6 A and 21 A.

1. "The proposed rule 6 A under Co-operative Regulation section 44 should not be passed into law as it is unnecessary, undesirable,arbitrary opposed to the basic principle of Co-operation, curbs the spirit of Non-official workers in the field of Co-operation, and tends to render the smaller Banking and stores socieites useless, and liable to be closed."

2. "The power proposed to be given to the Registrar under rule 21 A is arbitrary, and unnecessary since the wide powers given under rule 21 and 19 coupled with section 39 (1) of the Co-operative Regulation are quite sufficient to deal with all situations."

CHAIR-MAN

A Note.

The sudden publication in the Gazette dated 13-10-1932 of the proposed reles 6 A and 21 A under the Co-operative Regulation surprised not a few of us engaged in Co-operative service. For it is patent that the rules are intended to empower the Registrar to interfere in the internal management of Societies, and restrict the powers of the Societies in certain respects. What extrordinary situation had arisen now to urge the Government to enact such retrograde rules opposed to all canons of co-operation, surpassed our comprehension. In the Gazette of 13-10-1932 we searched in vain for the objects and reasons for the said rules. We were anxious to know what they were since we wanted to find out before expressing our own views on them, what reasons the Government could have got to justify the framing of these unusual rules. We therefore decided to apply to the Government to supply us with a copy of the objects and reasons for the said rules. One of us the Secretary of the City Co-operative Bank, applied to the Government to send a copy of the objects and reasons for the said rules; but latterly they were pleased to reply that no such statement was available.

Baffled in our attempt to understand the view of the Government we were obliged to turn our attention elsewhere and to find out whether such rules were current in the British Provinces. We were agreeably surprised to find that nowhere were rules of this nature inforce.

While going through the rules of the Bombay Presidency framed as recently as the year 1927, we found a rule No.45, which we reproduce here as it bears a close resemplance to the proposed rule 6 A

No.45.

" No person being a member of a society formed on a bssis of Unlimited liability, shall be a member of any other society formed on a similar basis, without the special or general sanction of the Registrar; and where a person has become a member of two such Societies either or both of the Societies shall be bound to remove him from membership upon a requisition from the Registrar".

The identity of phraseology between 6 A and rule 45 of Bombay is so marked in most respects, that it is pardonable for one to conjecture that 6 A may have been based upon the Bombay rule.

If the operation of 6 A is made applicable to Unlimited Societies, one may have no objection. For it is too well known that the Central Banks that lend thousands of rupees to unlimited Societies with the expectation of ultimately realising their money from properties owned by some of the members of these latter societies, though not mortaged to them, will have their security materially diminished if such persons should become members of a number of unlimited Societies, all of which may be indebted to the Central Banks.

But no difficulty of that kind arises in the case of Limited liability societies where the liability of each member is only to the extent of the shares he has subscribed. That is why the Bombay rule is made not applicable to Societies of every kind, but only to Unlimited Societies.

Some persons at the Public meeting who streched their imagination to discover a reason for 6 A suggested that the intention of the Government may be to prevent members from borrowing simultaneously in more than one Society beyond their capacity to repay. If that be the idea of the Government we hold that no rule of the kind now proposed to be framed is necessary.

Multiplying ones credit by becoming a member of more than one society of the same kind is possible only in the cities of Bangalore and Mysore, where only there are numerous societies of the same kind. So far as Mysore is concerned we are able to say that persons who have multiplied their credit in that way beyond what their position justifies, form a very small number compared with the total number of members in this city. The situation is not at all serious and does not need any legislative measure. The local Societies have already brought the situation under control. Loan application forms of the societies are so designed that they contain a column wherein the member has to specify the extent of his subsisting debts elsewhere; and in some societies he has to mention whether he has even applied for a loan elsewhere. Some of the loan application forms are enclosed herewith for your information.

It must be said to the credit of members members that they furnish the information required by the societies and have realised the harm of excessive borrowing. Now and then it happens however that some members suppress the information about their debts to other societies; but some committee members who happen to be on the committee of other societies discover the mistakes and expose the omission much to the annoyance ofthe member concerned. In fact this kind of vigilance of the committee members is felt by members of the type described above to be so irksome that they have started a campaign in this city, against a person being on the Managing Committee of more than one society, and are sending proposals to the General Meetings in favour of their view. Of course they do not get the support of the majority of members who easily see through the motives behind their proposals.

Certain societies scrutinize the loan applications twice--- once the loan Committee does it and again the Managing Committee as a whole considers it. The total indebtedness of each applicant is carefully considered by every society and necessary information regarding the applicant's indebtedness and regularity of payment is obtained from other societies before a loan is sanctioned.

Therefore no charge dan be levelled against the societies that they are careless in the discharge of their duties and that they lend to members indiscriminately.

Thus the only plausible argument that could be pressed in favour of 6A and therfore against membership in more than one soeity of the same kind, is very weak. On the other hand the a difficulties that crop up if 6 A is made applicable even to limited societies are very many and are of a very serious kind, and undermine the very foundation of the co-operative movement. We mention below some of these difficulties for the information of the Government.

1. To invest the Registrar with the authority to sanction admission of members into Societies is opposed to the basic principle of co-operation viz. non-interference of the department with the internal management of the societies.

2. Members admitted with the approval of the Registrar are likely to develop the feeling that they form a favoured class amongst the members, and may not only obstruct the smooth working of the institutions, but even tease the management. Also the basic principle of Co-operation --- viz. a sense of perfect equality of status in the soeiety between member and member will be corrupted.

3. Whether the application by a person to become a member of another society of the same kind should be made in the first instance to the societies at which admission is sought by him, who should forward the same to the Registrar for his opinion, or whether the person should apply in the first instance to the Registrar for recommending his case for admission to a particular society of his choice, is not clear from the rule. If the rule be interpreted to be wide enough to put the latter con-construction on it, the Registrar will practically be the sole authority to pass such applications for admission since few committees will be so bold as to set at naught a recommendation coming from so high a personage as the Registrar, who has also wide powers to check their actions in their societies.

4. The final and unrestricted power of discretion now proposed to be vested with the Registrar to order removal from membership of a person from one or more societies of the same kind, jeopardises the membership of persons who may oppose the Registrar, and tends to curb the spirit of independence of, or free expression of views and opinion on the Registrar's action, by such members, and forces self respecting and conscientious members to withdraw from societies.

5. To prohibit admission of a person into more than one society of the same kind, is to discourage the flow of share amount into co-operative societies, and reduce the flow of deposits into them, since very few persons who have no voice in the management of a society entrust their moneys to it, and since generally speaking, many persons are reluctent to deposit heavy sums in one single society. Further there is nothing in principle opposed to the admission of a person to more than one limited liability society of the same kind.

6. Many societies especially the smaller and weaker ones will be deprived of the honorary, disinterested and ardent services of their experienced committee members, who have been their excellant guides and advisers.

7. Some departmental societies and certain small societies confied to a small area of operation with rather limited resources, which as Complementary institutions to bigger Societies have been functioning will be obliged to close their business for want of sufficient funds to meet in full the demands of their members, and will drive them to the clutches of professional money lenders when the members require more money than those societies can lend.

8. If membership of societies built upon a policy followed and permitted for the last twenty-five years be disintegrated, especially in the cities, by such sudden and radical changes as are implied by the proposed rules, the work and funds of many societies will be dislocated so far as to disrupt many of them, and thereby prejudice the popularty of the Co-operative movement and its expansion.

9. Since persons who are already indebted to more than one society of the same kind cannot be removed from membership so long as they pay their instalments as agreed to, the rule if passed could be applied immediately to those persons only who have not so borrowed at all; in other words a rule intended to be applicable to borrowers will be applied not to the borrowers but depositors.

10. The inclination of a person to join a particular institution depends upon various circumstances such as,

(a) The proximity of the society to his residency.

(b) Membership therein of a number of his friends and relatives.

(c) The more favourable rates of interest on loans and deposits.

(d) The maximum amount of loan issuable.

(e) The maximum period of time allowed to repay the loan.

and (f) The financial stability of the institution.

Therefore it would be unfair to restrict the liberty of a person to join a society of his choice simply because he happens to be a member of another society of the same kind.

11. Since we find in our state that in combined credit and stores societies, the credit section is indispensible to prevent the institution,as a whole, working at a loss,it is fatal to the Co-operative stores movement of the state,to include such societies in the class of credit societies.

12. Non agricultural and Urban Co-operation have advanced very far from what they were in 1923 ----- the year of the Report of the Committee of Co-operation in Mysore. Some of the Committee's recommendations are not applicable to the present circumstances---- such as their recommendations to restrict membership even of limited societies to 300 or 400 persons each--- a position not supported either by the central or other Banking enquiary Committees, or by persons well versed and interested in co-operation (e.g. the Dewans address at the recent Silver JUbilee Celebration of the City Co-operative Bank, Bangalore)

Therefore the view of that committee expressed at page ~~of their report~~ of their report 16 para 70 are obsolete and inapplicable now----- nine years after their report.

13. While a person can become a member of any society he choses in the first instance without obtaining the sanction of the Registrar it passes ones comprehension to understand why a person who is already a member of more than one Society of the same class should be expelled from each and every one of them at the behest of the Registrar.

Turning our attention to 21 A we are constrained to observe that it is even more drastic, if not more revolutionary, than 6 A. Whereas 6 A affects the rights mainly of individual persons , 21 A takes away at one stroke the right of the General body as well as of the Managing Committee. The right of the Committees to function as long as their constituents have authorised them to work is taken away. The right of the General body to entrust the management of their societies only to their elected representatives is also taken away. The Registrar is authorised to nominate one or more persons of his own choice to take up the management of the society. Under these circumstances, we wonder whether the election of office bearers at the annual meetings will not be a mere farce. Will not the Registrar be virtually the Manager of the societies functioning through his own nominees? Where would then be the autonomy and the democratic nature of the administration of societies?

Government professes respeatedly that it is their aim to de-officialise the movement and transfer the management to the hands of non-official workers. Is this the way, we ask, of working, to reach that goal?

That the policy of the Government is to de-officialise the movement, and that they expect the Registrar and the Assistant Registrars to work towards that goal is clear from the order of our Government passed on 15-5-1916, from which we beg to quote the following passage, "..... In addition to the inspection of Societies the Registrar and the Assistant Registrars will be expected..... to bring into existence a strong non-official Agency to gradually undertake the work of inspecting and developing Societies....."

The policy enunciated in the above order is in consonance with the highest principal of co-operation as is evident from the following extracts from the writings of Wolff.

"More than once has it occured that carried away my momentary impatience to produce rapid results.....one or other of our Registrars has asked for "powers".....in the place of the more slowly, but more surely and solidly working co-operative spirit, to speed his work when Co-operation has been saved, by the Governments, replying with a firm "non Possumuss"

" one may regret in this matter (classing co-operation as a transferred subject) parting parting with the Imperial Government which has directed co-operation throughout in an absolutely faultless way, maintaining just principles, and restraining... ..... impatience when showing itself in favour of more and stringent summary powers of punishment....." (Foreword to "Co-operation in Bombay" By Kaji 1930 page ix)

The Central Banking Enquiary Committee have stated at page 134 of their Majority Report (1931) that, supervision, and inspection should be the functions of District Unions-------which are non-official organisations.

They continue

"There must,however, be non interference by the Registrar in the internal management of such a Union.

The powers proposed to be given under 6 A and 21 A come under the powers of "supervision" is clear from the explanation of the term in the Maclagan Committee Report.

These explanations are sufficient, we trust, to make the Government realise how their proposal is opposed to ~~ekt-very~~ the very rudiments of Co-operation.

Rule 21 A is of a penal nature, . But there is no definition of the facts that would be construed as penal by the Registrar. No committee can possibly know which action of theirs would be viewed with disfavour by the Registrar, and what ground he would find to be sufficient to oust them from management. The power proposed to be given to him is so undefined that it can easily be described arbitrary. The hardships that would result if 21 A is passed are numerous. The most important of them is financial. Deposits flow into societies in consequence of the confidence that the depositors have in their elected members on on the directorate. The moment they know that their elected representatives could be turned out at any me moment by the Registrar they withdraw their funds at the earliest opportunity. The blow to the Urban Limited Liability Societies will be unbearably severe.

Whether the persons appointed by the Registrar turn out honarary work or whether they have to be paid is not clear; if they should be paid who is to fix their remuneration, and if it is the Registrar who fixes it, whether the General Body han have no voice in the matter is not also clear.

Nor is there any necessity to frame the said rule 21 A. Such rules are not to be found in the British Presidencies. In Bombay the Registrar has nO power corresponding even to our standing rules 19 and 21. In Mysore, The Committee members who act contrary to the best interests of the societies could be dismissted under rule 21. Fresh members to the Managing Committees could be got elected by the shareholders themselves by the Registrar summoning an extradinary General Meeting under rule 19. If the members of the General Body should prove to be so irresponsible as to select repeatedly the same set of persons as have been dismissed by the Registrar, they cease to be co-operators and their society could be would up under section 39 (1) for not functioning properly.

The Moment the Societies realise that their very existence will be at stake if they use their power irresponsibly, they will exercise their right properly.

It is notat all our position that there are no defects in the societies that need attention; but it is our definite position that the remedy for the defe defects does not lie in piling up powers in the hands hands of the Registrar. The remedy lies in propaganda and in bringing together societies into unions and Federations to tackle problems that concernthem collectively. (Vide Presidential Address pages 4 & 5. Mysore Provincial Co-operative Conference 1931)

There is already a move to bring into ixistence a Federation of the Societies of this city. I enclose herewith a copy of the proposed Bye-laws of that Federation. The Federation will be, with the kind Co-operation of the Registrar, an accomplished fact within the next two or three months. When it is brought into existence, most of the difficulties engaging the attention of the Government, with regardto the method ~~of~~- of working of the societies, so far as Societies of this city are concerned, will be solved with thr greatest ease.

That this attempt of ours to form a Federation is a move in the right direction is clear from the following resolution and extracts selected from:- the proceedings of the Provincial Co-operative Conference Mysore 1928.

1. " Resolved that with a view to co-oddinate the activities and developments of societies of the smme kind working in Urban areas, a Federation of such Co-operative Societies be established."
(Resolution No 15 page 29)

In the course of ~~a~~ dissussion on subject No 1 regarding " nonofficial Agency for the Supervision of Societies," The Registrar made the following statements,

"---- that Government should not be expected to undertake all the work for all time to come. This work must be from nonofficials alone, and Government

Government was there to help them in the movement,which was afterall a nonofficial movement." (page 5)

The President of the Conference, Rajamantrapravina Mr. K. Mathan, also said,

"-------that the ultimate aim of them(delegates of the conference) all should be that Inspectors should become unnecessary as such, the work of supervision now being carried on by the department should ~~develop~~ devolve upon the shoulders of nonofficials only, if the movement were to be a people's movement and run by themselves." (page 5) ~~Ibid B. I. D.~~)

These rules which were ordered to be published for the information of the public on 27-9-1932 could have been placed also before the Annual Provincial Co-operative Conference held on 5-10-1932. If the Government is not prepared to omit 6 A & 21 A even after these considerations, we earnestly request them to postpone the consideration of these rules till the next Provincial Co-operative Conference of 1933 is held.
